Tour description

Neue Heilbronner Hut - Verbellaalpe - Kopssee - Vallülaweg - Silvretta-Bielerhöhe

The highlight of this hike is the entry into the Silvretta mountain range via the Vallülaweg. From gentle flower meadows it changes into the rugged crystalline rock of the Silvretta. In the last third of the route, the glaciers of the Silvretta are omnipresent.

Directions

From the Neue Heilbronner Hut, the path leads on a farm track to the Verbella Alpe and further to the Kopssee. Here begins the very beautiful Vallülaweg, revitalized in 2013. The somewhat demanding ascent first leads to the very idyllically located Vallülasee and further, following the Bielerhöhe signpost, to the upper mountain lake. Between the Vallüla and the small Vallüla, the path leads around large boulders up to the saddle. From the signpost at the saddle, the Bielerhöhe can be reached in about 1.5 hours. From Silvretta Lake-Bielerhöhe, it is about another 2 hours on the "summer path" to the Wiesbadener Hut. Surefootedness is required on the Vallülaweg!

At Kopssee, there is the option to shorten the tour by bus (Kops GH Zeinisjoch to Silvretta Lake) 13 km or 5:30 hrs - the "Vallülaweg" section is bypassed here.

Alpine mountain trail - may include safety ropes and foot aids!

Tips

Due to the high demand at the huts, we recommend reserving sleeping places directly at the huts early enough.

Hiking trail from Silvretta-Bielerhöhe to the Vallülasee only for experienced mountain hikers.
