Rundtour

Tour description

A leisurely and scenic hike in the cradle of the Montafon. Hike at Bartholomäberg on the historic paths and learn about the settlement history of the Montafon.

On this route, which starts at Bartholomäberg, the sun balcony of the Montafon, you move in historic terrain. On your route, you pass the St. Anna Tunnel. It is already more than 1,000 years old. During a guided tour, you have the opportunity to walk through it and descend up to 115 meters deep. Other highlights of this route are undoubtedly Fritzenssee and Rellseck. The almost kitschy Fritzenssee with its Maisäß settlement invites you to linger. If someone has a snack with them, there is hardly a better place to consume it. If you are not very hungry yet, Rellseck is also suitable for this. Both times you will be rewarded with a breathtaking view. At the beginning and at the end of your route, you have the opportunity to visit the oldest and impressive church at Bartholomäberg.

Directions

The start is the church at Bartholomäberg. (1087 m) Here also begins directly the first ascent towards the historic mine (the highlight of the route). Initially still on the paved road, after the third hairpin bend, you turn from Roferweg onto a hiking trail. This trail frequently crosses the paved road and finally leads you to the historic mine. When you reach the historic mine (1,320 m) after about 50 minutes, you have already completed the majority of the ascent.

From the mine, it continues to Fritzenssee, which is truly a place of longing with a fantastic view into the Rätikon of the Drei Türme and Zimba. A break to enjoy on a bench by the lake is definitely recommended. Then it continues towards Rellseck. There you reach the highest point of the route, 1,495 m. The Alpengasthaus Rellseck is located at 1,500 meters and is worth a visit at any time of year. Due to its unique location, it is considered one of the most beautiful viewpoints in the Montafon. From Legi, you now return to the church at Bartholomäberg.

Equipment

Ankle-high shoes with a good tread sole as well as weather-appropriate clothing.

During a guided tour in the mine, protective clothing will be provided to you. However, you should be aware that the temperature in the mine is constantly +8°C. Therefore, warm clothing should be carried if a mine visit is planned.
