Parking

Free parking spaces are located at the valley station of the Vermuntbahn.

Directions

Left of the Vermuntbahn valley station a short staircase leads to Bofastraße (sign "Europatreppe"), which is crossed directly under the railway track. There is the starting point of the Europatreppe 4000. On steps with varying surfaces, it now goes straight and steeply upwards towards the mountain station. At the halfway point and in the last third, there is each a path about 50 meters long, which does not go straight ahead.

The descent can be made either with the Vermuntbahn (Opening times to be observed) or via the footpath towards Partenen (route description including return).
