Tour description

On the Legend Trail, you'll discover mysterious sites related to the former mining operations on the Kristberg and immerse yourself in the world of Montafon legends as you wander through shady forests and take in sweeping views.

The Silbertal is a legendary side valley of the Montafon. For centuries, stories about miners, Christian events, and mysterious occurrences have been passed down here. On the Legend Trail, you'll encounter these tales at their actual locations and learn, among other things, the stories behind the Miners' Chapel, the Keys of St. Peter in the Montafon coat of arms, and the name of the Teufelsbach stream.

Among the special places along the tour are the "Bruderhüsl" in the Dalaaser Forest, the Wildried high moor, and other legendary sites. An audio guide accompanies you throughout the hike, providing additional information and legends. The tour also offers several opportunities to stop for a bite to eat.

Directions

From the Kristbergbahn mountain station, hike toward the Panoramagasthof Kristberg and continue on to St. Agatha Chapel. Then hike back along the same trail to the Kristberg Saddle.

From there, follow the Silberpfad downhill until you reach a wide forest road. Follow this road to the left, past the Wildried lookout point, to the Wildried high moor. At the Burtschabach, the trail leads you out of the valley through the Wasserstübenental to the Hasahüsli and on to the Fellimännle Alpine Inn. After that, you'll alternate between gravel paths and hiking trails, passing the Teufelsbach Waterfall on your way back to the center of Silbertal.
