Tour description

Golmerbahn middle station Matschwitz - Plazadels - Wachters Dieja - Alpe Latschätz - Golmerbahn top station Grüneck

Already at the beginning of the 17th century the Walser settled the Gauertal. During this time the Maisäb settlements Plazadels and Wachters Dieja were established. The settlements were part of the three-level agriculture, where the Maisäb were inhabited for a few weeks from May to June depending on the weather, before the cattle moved up to the alps for the summer. From Wachters Dieja the hike continues to the Alpe Latschätz and to the top station of the Golmerbahn.

Directions

The moderate hike starts at the middle station of the Golmerbahn in Matschwitz. First the forest road passes the Maisäß landscape of Matschwitz. At the last house the hiking trail begins and leads gently uphill through the forest to Plazadels. About 20 minutes later we reach the area Wachters Dieja. Now it is not far and we reach the farmed Alpe Latschätz. There we can refresh ourselves with a glass of milk and homemade cheese and enjoy the view of the surrounding mountain scenery.

Equipment

good ankle-high hiking boots with a good tread, hiking poles recommended
