Tour description

Alpengasthof Rellstal - Lower and Upper Zaluanaalp - Schweizertor - Verajoch - Lünersee - Lünkerinne - Alpe Lün - Alpengasthof Rellstal

The high mountain route does not skimp on scenic highlights and leads especially in summer through a blooming alpine garden. Particularly from Schweizertor over Verajoch to Lünersee, many marmots can be admired. The Lünersee is a natural mountain lake that is a feast for the eyes with its turquoise blue color.

Directions

It is recommended to take the hiking bus early in the morning to Rellstal. At the Rellskapelle, the gentle ascent begins along the Zaluandabach on an alpine path to the Lower & Upper Zaluandaalp. Then you head towards the Schweizertor and the Verajoch. Together we reach the Lünensee downhill through a magnificent alpine flora. Shortly before reaching the lake, a signpost to the right points to the Lünerkrinne. The Mässbödaweg leads to Alpe Lün and then back to the Alpengasthof Rellstal.

Conditions Long high mountain route on safe paths. Continuously well marked. Stamina is required due to 1000 meters of ascent and descent each. Diverse alpine flora.
