Directions

From the mountain station of the Tafamuntbahn, the path initially leads steadily uphill through the forest towards Wiegensee. The last section of the path before you reach Wiegensee is above the tree line. Once you arrive at Wiegensee, it is worth taking a break and enjoying the magnificent panorama. Then continue back on the same path until you reach the next junction (signpost Lower Wiega), where you turn left and thus get to Außerganifer via Schrofen. This path is relatively steep and sure-footedness is absolutely necessary. From Außerganifer, continue first on the gravel road and then turning right cross-country towards Partenen.
