Tour description

The path mostly follows along the Rellsbach stream upstream on the left side up to Rellstal. You are on a trail that is secured with a rope at one point (surefootedness is required at this spot). From Rellstal (Rellser Mariahilf Chapel), a trail partly runs alongside a service road and leads in about 1 hour to the Heinrich Hueter Hut.

Directions

From the base station of the Golmerbahn, the path leads along the Rellsbach stream to the entrance of the Rellstal - the Lende (parking lot). From here, a partly quite steep, narrow trail leads upstream on the left side. On the way into the Rellstal, one repeatedly crosses small tributaries to the Rellsbach. The path partly runs through very beautiful mixed forest, partly spruce forest. Beautiful views open up repeatedly towards Zimba and Saulakopf. After about three hours, you reach the Rellstal with the beautiful Rellser Mariahilf Chapel. The Rellstal hiking bus also goes this far. From here, you reach the Heinrich Hueter Hut in about one hour via a service road (mostly you walk on trails alongside the road).

Tips

The Rellser Mariahilf Chapel is a very beautiful photo motif. It is very nice to take the Rellstal bus to Rellstal, continue to the Heinrich Hueter Hut, and return via the Rellsbach trail to Vandans.
