Tour description

Accessible and short panoramic route at Bartholomäberg.
From the parish church along the panoramic road to Hotel Fernblick and back.

An impressive, accessible, and short route in a quiet location – ideal for wheelchair users, families with strollers, or anyone who wants to go leisurely and without incline. The route runs along the panoramic road with a splendid view over Montafon and invites you to a cozy stop at the end of the return journey at the "Café of am Widum" in Haus St. Anna.

Those who wish to continue at Hotel Fernblick can extend the walk along the panoramic road to Gasthaus Mühle – this adds about 1.8 km there and back (total about 4.4 km).

Approach

Take the A14 to the Bludenz/Montafon exit and continue on Montafonerstraße L188 to St. Anton in Montafon. At St. Anton, turn left (directly at the station) and follow the road to Bartholomäberg

Public transport

Just leave your car parked

Regional buses operate throughout Montafon. Main lines run every half hour from Schruns station.

Bus stop at the route's start/finish: Bartholomäberg Church / Line 640

Directions

From the church square, the route gently rises but remains accessible, following the panoramic road towards Hotel Fernblick. The road is quite quiet and not heavily trafficked. Impressive views repeatedly open up over the Montafon valley, the opposite Rätikon mountain range, and the Verwall.

After about 1.3 kilometers, you reach Hotel Fernblick – here, a small resting opportunity awaits on seats along the road. The return route follows the same way.

Tips

At the end of the route, a visit to the "Café of am Widum" in Haus St. Anna is worthwhile – just a few meters from the church. Here you can enjoy cake, good coffee, and the view of the impressive panorama in a quiet atmosphere. The café is accessible and run with great care.
