Tour description

Discover Montafon's nature with the whole family in a pleasant yet adventurous way!

The Litzbach adventure trail is a nature experience path with eleven interactive stations where nature can be experienced playfully. The trail runs along the Litz stream in Silvertal, which originates in the Vorarlberg Verwall European protected area, and is especially suitable for children and families. Children never get bored as there is always something new to discover. The path is very easy to walk in any weather. It is especially recommended during hot summer weather.

Pure nature!

Directions

Start at the "Felsa Parking Lot" and follow the path over the bridge to the left and downstream along the Litz. It passes by the entrance to the Montafon Saga Festival Stage. Shortly after, there is a short ascent and you pass the first interactive station. After this station, you can visit a funny weather station on the right side while passing by. The path continues gently uphill and after about 5 minutes you reach the Teufelsbach Waterfall.

Soon after, you cross the road leading downstream. The shortcut continues straight uphill through the forest. You can easily bypass the shortcut with a stroller by simply following the road to the right. After about 15 minutes, the shortcut leads to the gravel road and continues gently uphill along the Litz into the valley. More interactive stations appear repeatedly. Shortly before the Fellimännle alpine guesthouse, you can see numerous "Steemendlii" on the left side of the path. Many people have let their creativity run free here. Try it out and create more Steemendli.

You soon reach the Fellimännle alpine hut, which offers a large playground for children to linger. With a bit of luck, you can observe freely roaming marmots on the terrace of the Fellimännle alpine hut. The adventure trail continues a little further into the valley. Shortly before the Hasahüsli snack station, you reach the last interactive station of the adventure trail. The Hasahüsli is not far away, just follow the road uphill. You return to the starting point via the same path.

Equipment
