Directions

Stage 1: Vermuntsee to Saarbrücker Hut

From the Vermuntsee parking lot, follow the signpost uphill to the Saarbrücker Hut along a wide gravel path.

Walking time approx. 3:00 hrs // approx. 5.8 km // ascent 784 m, descent 1 m

Stage 2: Saarbrücker Hut to Madlenerhaus

For the first 1.5 kilometers, you go uphill on the same path you came from. Now turn right and follow this hiking trail across the Tschiffernella area until you reach the Madlenerhaus. The Madlenerhaus is located directly below the dam of the Silvretta Lake.

Walking time approx. 2:30 hrs // approx. 6.5 km // ascent 51 m, descent 604 m

Stage 3: Madlenerhaus to Wiesbadener Hut

From the Madlenerhaus, you hike up to the Silvretta Lake. The hike starts at the Silvretta Lake and leads left over the dam to the junction into the Bieltal. The lively Bieltalbach takes on the first elevation meters. As a larger lake, the Radsee lies to the right of the path on a height, embedded in green meadows. Now you have to cross rock and scree fields. Higher up the path becomes wetter as smaller lakes are located in the terrain. The Radsattel is reached. The view is magnificent. Grey-green and rust-red rugged rock ridges rise from green mats. Behind them shine the white firn fields and impressive glaciers. The descent to the Wiesbadener Hut starts a bit steeply and then zig-zags downhill.

Walking time approx. 4:00 hrs // approx. 8.7 km // ascent 746 m, descent 286 m

Stage 4: Wiesbadener Hut to Silvretta-Bielerhöhe

At the Wiesbadener Hut you now go downhill back to the Silvretta Lake and follow the west shore back to the Madlenerhaus. From here you then return to the Vermunt reservoir where you parked your car.

If you have no reserves left for the last few meters downhill, you can also take the public bus from Silvretta Lake down to Vermuntsee.

Walking time approx. 4:25 hrs // approx. 12 km // ascent 61 m, descent 1,758 m
