

Venser Messweg

MODERATE

RUNDTOUR

Tour description

A cozy local route that leads through the Vandans residential area. Along residential streets and historic "Messweg" paths, you can discover historic and architecturally interesting houses.

The walking path invites you to stroll through the municipality of Vandans. Starting in the village center, the path leads along the village street downstream to the end of the municipality, marked by the pilgrimage chapel Venserbild. The way back leads over historic "Messweg" paths (old grass paths used to attend church services on Sundays). The residential houses and their architectural styles show how Vandans developed from a predominantly rural place to a residential and tourist community.
