Directions

From the hiking parking lot Latschau, the first part follows the well-signposted Aquaweg. At the Lederbach intake (shortly before the Gampadels power plant), the hiking trail leads right up towards Manuaf - Horamaisäß. After a short time, you reach the alpine meadow settlement Manuaf. It continues alternately through forest and clearings over a hilltop to Mansaura, where a very nice view down the valley towards Bludenz awaits you. Over a side trail, the hike leads to Bitschweil Lake, where the only refreshment option of the route is located. From there, follow the signpost back to Latschau.
