

Bartholomäberg via Monteneu to the Wannaköpf

DIFFICULT RUNDTOUR

Tour description

From Bartholomäberg to the Wannaköpfe. A scenic route where you move in picturesque surroundings and can usually enjoy nature alone.

The start of this route is the Baroque Church Bartholomäberg. From here, it goes steadily uphill to the Wannaköpfe. Past the historic mine, you hike with your snowshoes over the Fritzensee up to Monteneu. Here it is worth taking a short rest on the bench at the cross. You will have a magnificent view down into the valley. It is recommended to take the time during the whole route to enjoy the incredibly beautiful view into the Rätikon. You will get a view of the well-known mountains Drei Türme, Sulzfluh, Drusenfluh, and Zimba. This sight makes up for all the exertion. Once at the Wannaköpfe, you also have a wonderful view over the alpine town of Bludenz and the adjacent Walgau area. The return path follows the same way you came.
