

Bartholomäberg via Chrestlis Egg to Filters/Viewpoint

EASY RUNDTOUR

Tour description

A scenic winter hike that you can discover as an enjoyable route for yourself. At mid-height, you repeatedly have the chance to enjoy a fantastic view into the valley.

The start of this route is at the Baroque Church Bartholomäberg. From here you first go uphill. A pleasantly ascending road leads you in the direction of Riederhof. You constantly have the opportunity to let your gaze wander into the valley. You can also spot the Rätikon mountain range with the mighty Drei Türme from afar on this route. With a good camera, you also have the chance to take excellent pictures from a distance of the well-known mountains Zimba, Sulzfluh, Drusenfluh as well as the aforementioned Drei Türme. A wonderful opportunity to admire the picturesque Rätikon with the beautiful Gauertal from the opposite side of the valley. This route is perfect for taking in impressions. You are moving on the sun balcony of Montafon, which means you get the most hours of sunshine in the whole Montafon on this route.
