

Madrisa Rundtour (1-day Gargellen) - Mountains know no borders

DIFFICULT EINKEHRMÖGLICHKEIT RUNDTOUR BERGBAHNAUF-/ABSTIEG

Tour description

Magnificent panoramic views, interesting geological and botanical diversity, but also historical paths in the border area between Austria and Switzerland.

Sporty, challenging, breathtaking – the Madrisa Rundtour offers you a special kind of border experience. The Rätikon pass hike from Gargellen leads you through the distinctive Madrisa massif at over 2,000 meters and crosses international borders. Where smugglers once operated, today well-passable paths provide you with a unique natural experience that will impress you sustainably.

The one-day circular route runs on marked alpine trails from the mountain station of the Gargellen cable cars over the Gafierjoch into the Madrisa land above the Swiss monastery. The return is via the Schlappinerjoch back to Gargellen.

Stamina and fitness are required, but you will be rewarded with unique views. With seven hours of hiking in a high alpine setting, you may reach your limits. Therefore, we recommend doing the Madrisa Rundtour with a Montafon mountain guide who tells exciting stories from the time of pack carriers and smugglers.
