

High-altitude route (Bartholomäberg - Kristberg)

MODERATE EINKEHRMÖGLICHKEIT

Tour description

A fantastic high-altitude route on the sunny balcony of the Montafon. The scenery is stunning and the view overwhelming. You can look forward to plenty of moments of enjoyment on this route. A wonderful route starting at the Baroque Church Bartholomäberg. Your route begins immediately with the most strenuous part. From the church uphill to the Fritzensee, the route takes you over varied sections. Initially on asphalt, you soon switch to a path and later to a beautiful meadow path. You pass the historic mine until you finally reach the Fritzensee. This idyllic lake invites you to dream and/or have a small snack. Then you continue on a pleasantly flowing high-altitude path towards Kristberg. Passing picturesque Maisäß settlements, you repeatedly have time to let your gaze wander down into the valley and over the surrounding mountain world. It is a breathtaking experience until you finally reach the Panoramagasthof Kristberg. Your route ends a few hundred meters after the Panoramagasthof Kristberg at the upper station of the Kristberg cable car.
